My
May

Country! Peer of them all! Your eagles answer the call, No thrones and tyrants be hurled, May flags of battle be furled, And goal too far Nor can oceans bar When Honor defends the wall; Let ev'ry where May the nations share The splendor that lights the world: My hosts of victory sing! Let bells of Liberty ring! The country's glory and fame Be earned in liberty's name: Though wide world hears For a thousand years The word that the eagles bring.

wrong may rail Let the light prevail And laurels of victory claim.
REFRAIN
Onward! Freedom be our star! Let it shine on paths ever bright; Our fathers' zeal,- with faith of steel,- Gave us this glorious light; Onward! Legions of the West! Send the word o'er land and o'er sea Where might is right And right is might, Vanguard America shall be.
