1. When Huns got out their guns — and start-ed their great war On
2. Then Wil-son took com-mand — and called his Yan-kees out, Three
3. On ship George Washing-ton — then Wil-son sailed a - way To Bel-gium, France and England, and sev'-ral na-tions more, — Then Al-lies were all cer-tain that mill-ion strong he sent on to help the Al-lies out, — Then o'er the top our boys went and see all na-tions right-ed and that the Huns must pay, — By plans of this great lead-er for they could whip the Hun, But had to call on Wil-son be-fore the trick was done. vic-to-ry was won; Then Wil-son tho't he'd bet-ter go set-tle with the Hun.

peace and love and right, All na-tions in the fu-ture will ar-bi-trate not fight.
