

JUN 17 1918

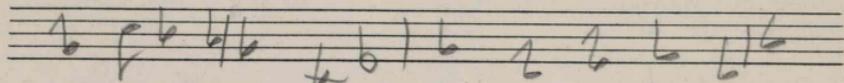

© G. E. 425729
MRS. E. H. SALYARD.

UNCLE SAMMIE'S MEN.

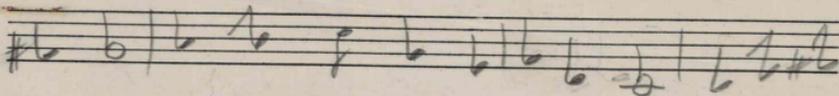

JULIAN de VERE

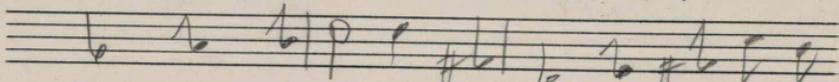

Far across the ocean, many miles away, A great and mighty army stands today; While shot and shell around them fall they give their life for duty's call; United States stands by you, brothers, With soldiers that are brave and true; we will teach those Huns together Just what they have to do. CHO Now, Master Kaiser and your army, Uncle Sam sends you this morning One thing you'll surely have to do Before this battle you get through,

To To raise your hat and then salute The old Red, White and Blue. There'll be no peace till then, And don't forget this message comes from Uncle Sammie's Men.

433536