Our Per-shing's go - ing o'er the sea, To Now ev - 'ry one must do his bit, The fight for all hu - man - i - ty And place our flag in Ger - man - y, Where thing for which he knows he's fit And none of us must id - ly sit, Un - it will float on high. So if he gives a call for til the bat - tle's won. And when the war is ov - er vol - un - teers We'll all step for - ward and will give three cheers: all will be. Just one big na - tion of the brave and free:

Chorus.

And we'll fol - low Per - shing in - to Old Ber - lin, O'er the foes a - round us ly - ing. With fif - ty thou - sand strong we'll brave - ly march a - long With the Stars and Stripes a - fly - ing And Right will lead us on our way, And the vic - to - ry we'll win Ger - man gaus and Ger - man curs - ing can - not stop our march with Per - shing in - to Old Ber - lin! And we'll - lin!
