

APR 26 1919

✓ R¹

Wm Carroll

23 Shepard St Gloucester Massachusetts

©CLE450966

The Twenty Sixth, our own snow days.

10

M1646

.C

The Twenty Sixth Our Own Brave Lads
Will Soon Be Coming Home

Words and Music

Wm. S. Arnold

The first system of the score consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a common time signature. The second and third staves are piano accompaniment, with the second staff in treble clef and the third in bass clef. The music begins with a few notes in the treble staff, followed by a series of chords in the piano accompaniment.

slowly with expression

The second system of the score consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a common time signature. The second and third staves are piano accompaniment, with the second staff in treble clef and the third in bass clef. The music continues with a series of notes in the treble staff and chords in the piano accompaniment.

The town of ~~Wilmington~~ our own brave lads will soon be coming home
Some brave young men will not come back from far across the sea

The town of ~~Wilmington~~ our own
Some

The third system of the score consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a common time signature. The second and third staves are piano accompaniment, with the second staff in treble clef and the third in bass clef. The music continues with a series of notes in the treble staff and chords in the piano accompaniment.

For their noble work is ended in the land from the fog
For their days of strife are ended and their peace shall ever be

The fourth system of the score consists of three staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a common time signature. The second and third staves are piano accompaniment, with the second staff in treble clef and the third in bass clef. The music continues with a series of notes in the treble staff and chords in the piano accompaniment.

They will give them one grand welcome they will make them one song for their
They have fought for dear old glory the red sea white and blue with the

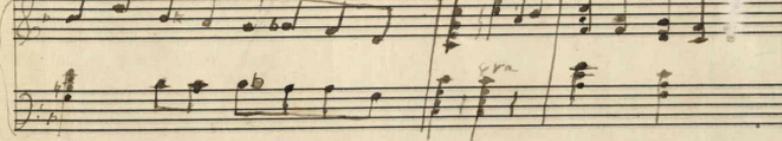

And will be applauded their praise we shall sing
For it of our nation that is To die or do But helped to down the tyrant in the land a cross the sea the now the war is over and peace na more shall reign May

In eyes of right and lib. or to May God bless them and for God give but be from all cause a gain For We here or there young to them shall be our plea The flower of our nation the founder of the free her or Our nation here y. D. The sorrow of our nation and of the man by

APR 26 1919

THE TWENTY SIXTH, OUR OWN BRAVE LADS, WILL SOON BE COMING HOME.

For their noble work is ended, in the land across the foam,
We will give them one grand welcome,
We will make the heavens ring
And their deeds will be applauded,
Their praises we shall sing,
They helped to down the tyrant,
In the land across the sea,
The enemy of right and liberty.
May God Bless them and protect them,
That shall ever be our plea
The flower of our nation, defenders of the free.

Some brave young lads will not come back
From far across the sea:
For their days of strife are ended
And their peace will ever be.
They have fought for dear old glory,
The red, the white and blue,
With the spirit of our nation
That is, "To die or do".
But now the war is ended, and peace once more shall reign,
May God protect us from all wars again.
For we honor those young heroes,
Our famous brave Y.D.
The savior of our nation
And of Humanity.

Song Words & Music by

Wm Carroll

2 Shepherd St Gloucester Massachusetts

U. S. A.