I Never Believed In Angels Until I Met You

Words by ROBERT F. RODEN

(Girl Of The Cross)

Music by PETER DE ROSE

Intro.

Piano

Voice

I look at you girl of the cross And think of the days gone by — When they I used to sneer girl of the cross At things that they call di - vine — But I told me that there were an - gels And I thought it was all a lie — But the knew I was wrong my an - gel When your eyes first looked in - to mine — You have stor - ies they told me were true — I know there are an - gels for I've met you.

taught me what life real - ly meant — I need - ed an an - gel so you were sent.

Chorus

If be - ing an an - gel is to do what you've done Lit - tle girl of the cross then you sure-ly are one. Risk-ing your life A-mid bat-tle's strife

Mak-ing lives new, nurs-ing them through You are sweet-heart, and moth-er to sad hearts that yearn You bright-en their sweet dreams of Home-fires that burn You were sent from a-b-ove on a mis-sion of love, I nev-er be-lieved in an-gels Un-till I met you. If you.

THAT'S ALL ONE MOTHER CAN DO

Try this on your piano.

That's All One Mother Can Do

Refrain. With moderate, slow feel

And without the girl you're the, When you were a babe, That laugh you seek

And you're the girl you're the, When you were a babe, That laugh you seek

And you're the girl you're the, When you were a babe, That laugh you seek

And you're the girl you're the, When you were a babe, That laugh you seek

And you're the girl you're the, When you were a babe, That laugh you seek
