 How glad Ma is the war is o'er that peace has been de-clared. Thank Now I've received a let-ter from a sol-dier lad to-day He God her boy was spared, I know how much she cared. She smiles a-gain that old sweetsmile, As said I'm on my way, Back to the U. S. A. I've seen old France and I-tal-y, And in the days gone bye Be-cause her boy is com-ing home And that's the rea-son why.

 stopped in gay Pa-ree. But give me good old Yan-kee Land, The home of Lib-er-ty.

CHORUS

For there's a smile on ev-ry moth-er's face to day—who has a boy a - cross the sea ——— She's wait-ed long for his re - turn-ing She's kept the home-fires burn-ing And done her bit to help de-moc-ra - cy ——— And when Un-cle Sam-my called him, And he marched a - way, You could Now when Un-cle Sam-my called him, And they said "Fare-well," We knew see her heart was break-ing, But gone is yes-ter - day. For there's a smile on ev-ry moth-er's face to-day—they were go-ing o - ver To give old Wil-liam H-Well

— For her boy is com-ing home. ——— Well there's a home. ———
