

FEB 27 1919

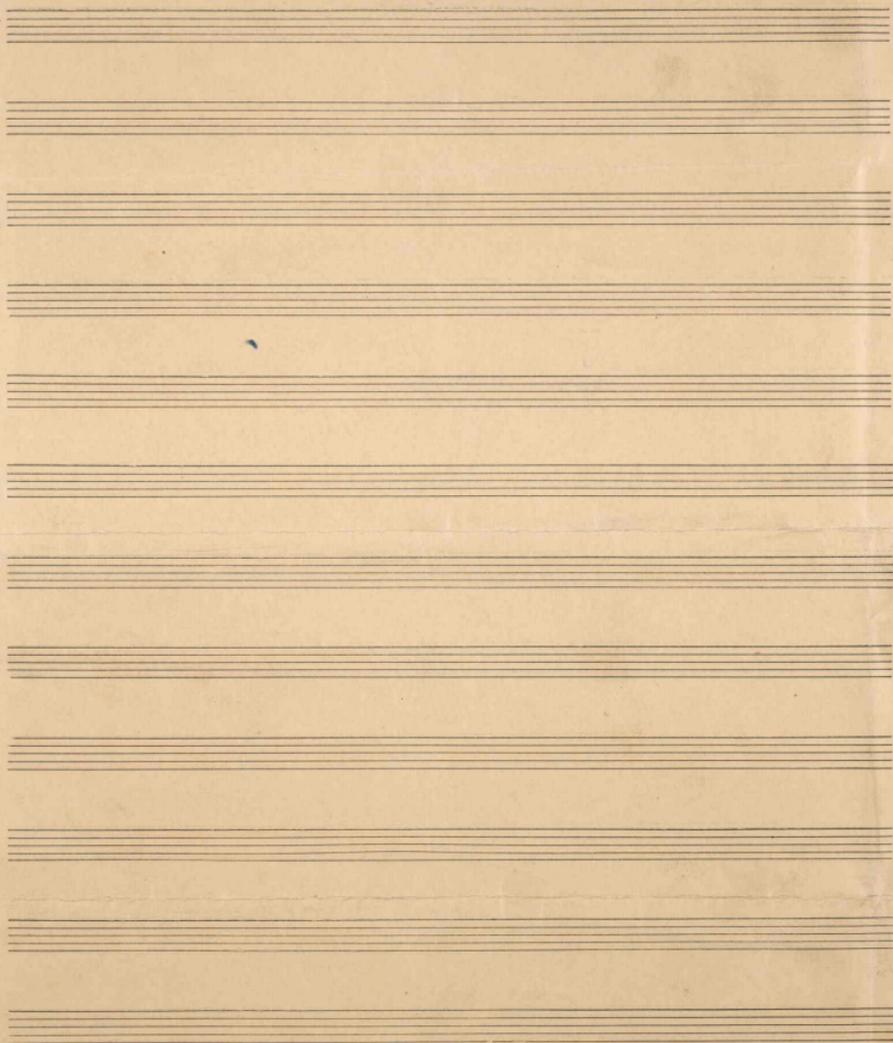

Buy More Bonds 'Till The Last Boy Comes Home.

Words by
David PortnoyMusic by Harold Rice.Intro. marcia. modto

Carnp.

H 1646
15
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 4—12 lines.

5

454148

FEB 27 1919

©AE445020

Words by
David B. Portnoy

Music by Harold Dixon.

"BUY MORE BONDS TILL THE LAST BOY COMES HOME."

1st Verse:

We are called upon once more, 'cross the sea,
To help our heroes 'cross the sea,
They made the greatest sacrifice,
So listen to their plea.
And now while they are waiting,
In that land across the foam,
It's up to you and me my friends,
To bring them safely home.

ANS. 854 P 373

MAR 3 1919

Ok. B. P.

CHORUS:

Buy more bonds, buy more bonds, buy more bonds!
Till the last boy comes home.
Let's all get together,
As we did before,
Back those Yankee heroes
As in days of yore.
For they brought us on to Victory,
Let us bring them back from 'cross the foam.
Tho your bank roll may get lighter,
Make a job for every fighter,
And buy more bonds, buy more bonds,
Till the last boy comes home.

Copyrighted by David B. Portnoy, all performing and mechanical rights of this number are exclusively reserved.