Introduction. Marcia.

Piano.

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, marked ff (fortissimo) and Vamp. (Vamp). It features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand, with a steady bass line in the left hand. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

Voice.

Far a - cross the sea — Some-one thinks of me — how my heart yearns to be there. —
It's in Ger-man-y — Un-cle Sam will be — when he has his part to play. —

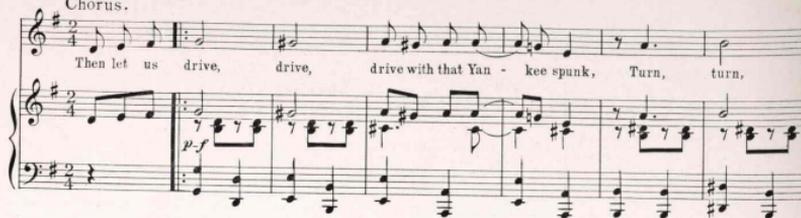

— Where the shot and shell — sounds the Lib-er-ty Bell — As they're fly - ing through the air. —
— With his gal - lant men — He is go - ing to send — Who are train - ing day by day. —

— Where our loved one's go — there to fight a foe — whose strength no one can tell — — When our work is done — and our Vic - tory won — you'll — hear the Neu - trals say —

— Now we're due to fight — let us do it right — and do it migh - ty well. —
— It's the whole world's good — Un-cle Sam-my stood — for free - dom of — the sea. —

Chorus.

Then let us drive, drive, drive with that Yan - kee spunk, Turn, turn, turn their lines in - to junk, Make that Kai - ser shake with fear just as death he's sure to hear, Say can you see Our Un - cle Sam's a hyp - no - tiz - er came to make the Kai - ser wis - er, Ber - lin - ers know it's time to go, When Un - cle Sam - my makes that Yan - kee drive. Then let us drive.
