

WELCOME HOME

THE GREAT American
PATRIOTIC SONG

WORDS AND MUSIC
BY

DONOVAN DICKINSON.

AUTHOR OF THE SONG
" THE WORLD - WIDE WAR "

Copyrighted 1919 by Donovan Dickinson, Charleroi, Pa.

Price 50 cents.

PUBLISHED BY FRANK HARDING
228 E. 22ND ST. NEW YORK CITY

IF YOU CANNOT OBTAIN COPIES FROM YOUR DEALER
SEND DIRECT TO THE PUBLISHER~

WELCOME HOME

A PATRIOTIC SONG

by DONOVAN DICKINSON.

Author of Song "THE WORLD WIDE WAR."

Mod^{to}
mf

Wel - come Home, Our Yank - ees Brave, From for - eign soil a - cross the - Wel - come Home, Our Per - shing too, With - out his help they could - 'nt - Wel - come Penn - syl - vania's Nat'l Guard, Your loss - es show that you fought - - wave,

do,
hard,

You have won the Ad mir - a tion of - -
He led the Yanks in - to the fray, caused - - - Al - so Our "Glor 'ous fight - ing Tenth," Bra - - -

all True Hearts from ev - 'ry Na - tion, If it was not for this daunt - less the Al - lies - to win the day, Filled wear - y hearts with cour - age
- er Sol - diers to war ne'er went - , As the Key - stone is the cen - tral

Copyright 1919 by Donovan Dickinson, Charleroi, Pa.

Band,
new,
State,

There'd still be war in "No Man's Land",
Soon put to flight the Kais - er's crew.
You're Cen - tre of our Arm - y great.

CHORUS

'Mid Bat - tle's smoke and fields so gor - - - y. You cheered

mf

on our Sol - diers brave, Led them to peace and

Vic - tor - y, You're the Fair - est Flag on Land or Sea.....

Ask Me No More.

Words by Alfred Tennyson.

Music by
Geo. H. Hackley

Andante.

Piano

Ask me no more, The moon say, how the sea. The clouds may sleep. From hence and take the ship.

Copyright 1913 by Geo. H. Hackley.
All Rights Reserved.

"My Little Telephone Girl"

Words by
JOHN T. ZWERNEMANN

Music by JACK EDMONDS

INTRO.
Tempo di Valze

Moderate

There's a sweet lit-tle girl. She's the best in the
Just a feed in the square. And a soft flow'ring would
to see the Tel-er phone. She breeze
Us-der the at-ter leaf. A-

Copyright 1913 by John T. Zwernemann

Descriptive Song. "A Pack Of Cards."

As Sung by
Miss Margaret Oliver

Written & Composed
By Henry Reilly.

Alllegro.

Piano

Tempo di Valze.

1 One night as I sat by my fire-side so
2 The card scene I saw filled my heart with glee
3 The last scene of all I be-hold with weep was - ty. And dream-ing of friends who were far, far a - way. My pl - ay. It was a young man and his pa-ter-nal I knew. 'Twas ser - vice. For there was the scene of the gam-ble's black fate. No

Copyright 1910 by Frank Reilly.

"FLORALIA." The Newest Flower Song.

"Gorgeous flowers in the sunlight bloom,
Blossoms dancing in the eye of day.
Trembling, waving with soft and sweetest liking,
Buds that open only in the breeze."

LONDONER.

Moderate.
Con molto espressione

W. HENRY STEPHENS.

p Pianissimo

Published by Frank Clarke, New York.

Copyright, 1910, by W. H. STEPHENS.
Reprinted according to act of Parliament, in conformity with the "Trade Mark" Act, 1908, by the Trustees of the Copyrights of the Publishers.