CALL OF THE U. S. A.

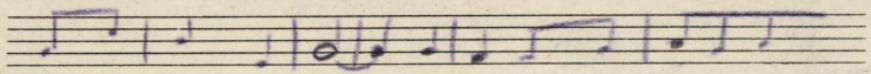

Words by J. H. Wright.

Music by Luther A. Clark.

Tempo di Marcia

Listen to a call from our noble President, It is oft heard the world all around, The nations are looking to America, Where Democracy now may be found. Columbia was the gem of the ocean, The submarine is the terror of the sea,

But to you is the call, dear America, In the name of fair

Democracy!

THEODORE PRESSER CO., PHILA., PA.

CLARK'S MUSIC TABLET

Do you now remember the Lusitania,
And the way she went down in the sea?
The raiders were given every courtesy,
Who then anchored there under our lee.
We had no selfish motives to offer,
And all we wished was just neutral then to be,
But the S. O. S. calls from the ocean wide
Had a very war-like ring to me.
