HIS LAST WATCH ON THE RHINE.

Words by Lydia Y. Cutshaw.
Tempo di Marcia.

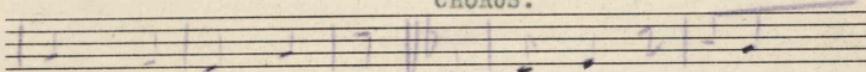

Music by Luther A. Clark.

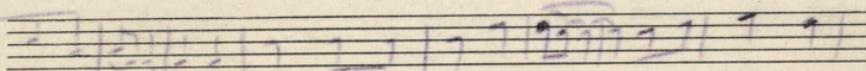

Let Kaiser Bill live on the Rhine, In a glass house thick and fine. No one to him a word may say, Alone with his thoughts the live long day. Oh, what will we do with Kaiser Bill? Is that question going still? In the land he did oppress, There let him live in his distress.

CHORUS.

2.

We'll bind his hands and then his feet,
Put him in a whirling seat,
And keep him for a time alive,
And let him but see the country thrive.

3.

Oh, let the Allies' flags be seen
Floating on the banks so green,
And make his sons toil in the fields
Or milk many cows and serve Yanks' meals.

4.

If he should live for fifty years,
We should make him give three cheers
Each day to the Allied control,
With bitter regret consume his soul.
