

JAN 11 1919
©C.E. 439681

THE HOME-COMING.

Words by Hazel M. Buckmaster. Music by Luther A. Clark.

(Written on the eve the news was received that "The war was over", H.M.B.)

Tempo di marcia.

Is your heart full of gladness, dear, to-night? At the good news we received to-day; That our sweethearts, friends and brothers, All would soon be on their way; back to

dear ones, waiting, Glad to press them to their hearts ;

And to mingle them their tears together, Hoping never more to part; Ne'er to fight in war's grim battle, Nor in foreign lands to roam; Went there be a great rejoicing-

When the Boys Come Home ?

M1646

448557