Words by John S. Birge

Music by Luther A. Clark.

Tempo di marcia.

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: Far across the sea, there's a country quite small;

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: You can see its name in papers every day: Little Belgium

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: manned by her soldiers grand; King Albert's little army

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: doesn't sway. They're still fighting with might for what

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: they know is right, And the gallant Allies know she saved

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: the day. And when the fighting all is done, and we have whip-

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: ped the Hun; King Albert's men are sure to have their say.

1st. Chorus.

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: Fight on Belgium! we're with you. And you can bet we'll

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: see you through. We know what you've been offered by the Musical staff with notes and lyrics: Kaiser's Huns, And we know you answered back with your

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: gallant sons. Many times you've made the Kaiser stop and

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: scratch his head, As he viewed your field of battle with Musical staff with notes and lyrics: his fallen dead. Fight on King Albert, we'll see you through.

Musical staff with notes and lyrics: Little Belgium, Uncle Sammie's with you too.

Our Allies we know are all grateful to you, For your sturdy, fighting soldiers blocked the way; And the dreadful siege you withstood at Liege, Is why the Huns have not won out to-day. What's been done on your soil, has caused our blood to boil, It's been done there by the Kaiser in his sway. For what's been done by man to man, on your once-peaceful land, He's tried to make the women and children pay.

2nd. Chorus.

Fight on Belgium! we're with you, And you can bet we'll see you through. We know how you have suffered from the Kaiser's Huns, And we know they'll surely pay, when our work is done. And if you lose your country, which we do not fear, We will still have lots of room for your brave fighters here.

Fight on King Albert! we'll see you through, Little Belgium, Uncle Sammie's with you too.
