

Oct. 31. 1918.

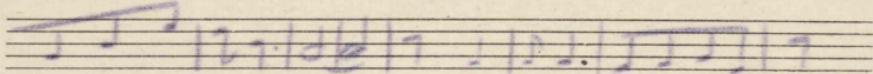

OUR BRAVEST HERO.

Words by Mrs. Lucile Brown.
Tempo di marcia.

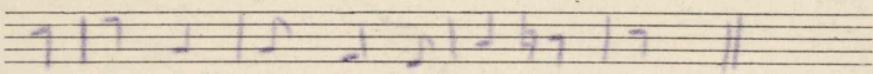

Music by Luther A. Clark.

©CLE433490. Our bravest hero, wave far and wide! You are our best and only guide. Make thy colors ever, ever bright;

And make great truth show in their clean light.

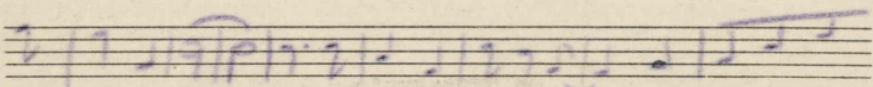

CHORUS.

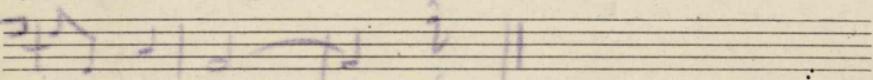

High up in the air you fly, While at night you peacefully lie;

For thoughts of world freedom, men will sigh. For your sake

I'd gladly die. Last of all, you never lag. Your own, and my own be-loved flag

2.

Ah! never then, will we let you fall.

One and all, answer to your call.

Millions now have lost their lives for you.

And you've proved, e'er this, what you can do.

FOR SALE BY THE NATIONAL LITERARY & PUBLISHERS' SERVICE BUREAU, HANNIBAL, MO.

THEODORE PRESSER CO., PHILA., PA

CLARK'S MUSIC TABLET

M1646

.c

