

©CLE425419R
JUN 10 1918

OUR PRESIDENT. (WILSON.)

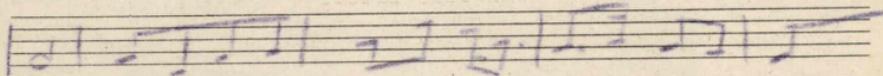

Words by Raymond E. Simpson.

Music by Luther A. Clark.

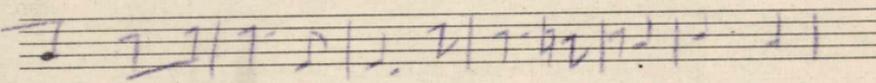

Tempo di Marcia

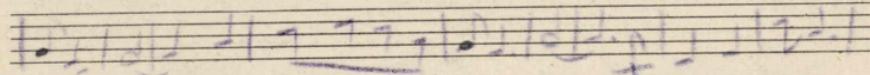

He is a man upright and true, A man with a standard high, He's a man who'll do his duty When the danger point comes nigh; A man so learned in politics, So square with other lands, The head of a Republic grand, A man who is a man.

2.

He loves the out-door manly sports,
And oft plays a game of golf;
He's an upright Christian fellow,
And we cannot find a fault.
Sure you can tell who this man is!
Just think of what he does,
And you will see that he's a man,
And he's the man we love.

FOR SALE BY THE NATIONAL LITERARY & PUBLISHERS' SERVICE BUREAU, HANNIBAL, MO.

M1646

.c

THEODORE PRESS

CLARK'S M

432594

