

OCT 17 1918

©J.E.433099

THERE'S WORK FOR ALL.

Words by Elizabeth Stanford. Music by Luther A. Clark. tempo di marcia.

If you can't go and fight in the true cause of right,

You need not idle be, there's work to do; The harvest's ripe, and this call comes for you. Do not delay, but hurry on the wo work. There is work, work, work; Work for all to do.

CHORUS.

There is work, work, work; Yes, work for you.

CLARK'S MUSIC

2.

Toil early and 'til late, for laborers are few.
Just knit a sweater warm, 'twill help e'en you;
A pair of socks now, they will be sure to go,
Yes, send them quite a few, for toes come through.

3.

Or, make a neck scarf, in the winter they wont sweat;
And knit a pair of wristlets do, for they need them too;
A helmet, for the man who flies on high,
The wind will blow, Oh! how cold he will grow!

4.

Be sure you count your stitches carefully and right,
For if you don't, 'twill be a horrid sight.
And now you know thwy need them every one,
So come along, and get your work well done.

5.

If you can't knit a thing for our boys there, to wear,
just make some dresses for the orphans' share;
So many tots are dying, lasking help,
Do not be idle now, or sit and fret.

6.

If it should happen, you don't know yet how to knit,
Or feel perhaps, you don't know how to sew;
Just go report at Red Cross, to-day,
Roll bandages; -they'll teach you what to do.

***

FOR SALE BY THE NATIONAL LITERARY & PUBLISHERS' SERVICE BUREAU, HANNIBAL, MO.

M1646

C

411369