Hark, oh hark, here come the soldiers, they are marching on their way They have March-ing on, they will ne'er turn back, but they straight a-head will go Cross the
They will hoist the Stars and Stripes and let their glorious col - ors fly They will ans-ered well the call to arms, to fight to win the day When sea to help the Al-lies, brave, to strike that aw-ful blow Their fight to win a vic-to-ry or for their coun-try die They

Un - cle Sam - my called the roll to arms, my men, who'll try _____ To step is true and stead - y, and their minds are firm - ly set _____ To sign with - out a trem - or or with - out a bit of fear _____ And help to win this aw - ful war, they shout - ed clear "aye, aye!" _____ win this rag - ing bat - tle and they'll free all pris - oners yet. _____ when the bu - gle called for men, they ans - wered with a cheer. _____

CHORUS

mf f Let us buck - le on our ar - mor _____ and do our lit - tle might _____ For. cresc.

molto rit. a tempo Un - cle Sam and coun - try, and we'll fight, fight, fight for Old Gio - ry Let us ry. _____
