Chorus
There's a ser-vice star on the win-dow bar, There's a moth-er kneel-ing in prayer, There's a pict-ure of him in a frame grow dim, Of the boy who has gone o-ver there, His old dad-dy stands with his Trem-bling hands — On the sword he wore — in six-ty - one; — His life touch the star on the win-dow bars, And his heart fills with pride for his son. — There's a son. —
