MAY 15 1918
FEB 6 1918
©QLE 123884

~~The Bright Starry Flag.~~

The Starry Flag.

Words and music

by...

Julia O'Donoghue

M1646
.O

The Starry Flag.

Words and music
by ---

Julia O'Donoghue.

257 So. 21st Street.
Philadelphia. Pa.

PRESSED STEEL PHILADA.

FEB 8 1918

The ~~Bright~~ Starry Flag.

The Starry Flag.

Words and music by Julia O'Donoghue.

Moderately

Our bright star-ry flag waves o'er Ocean green wa-ters, like a rare gem it shines o'er land and o'er sea. It brings faith and hope to earths des-o-late daugh-ters, Pro-claims to the world peace and love, lib-er-ty.

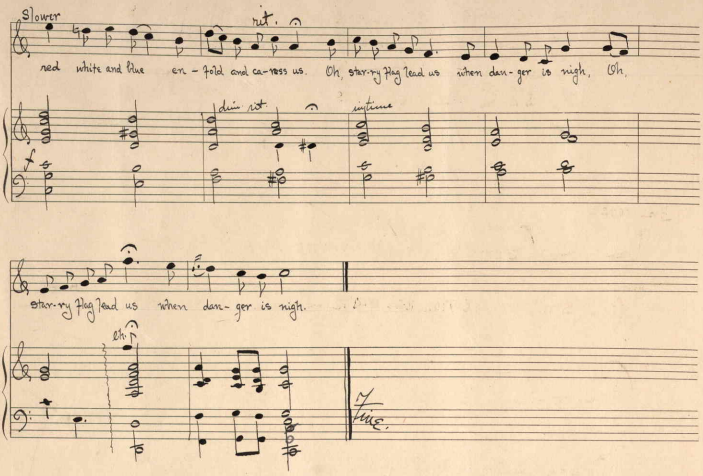
Sing for the bright flag is wa-ving a-bove us. Shed not a tear it shall e-ver float high. Thou

March time

I have applied for copyright.



2nd verse,

Tho' hopes, are all crushed, under tyranny's weapon,
And valiant young heroes, have gone to their doom,
Tho' steeped in their blood, is the earth, that we step on,
Their sweet voices whisper, to us, from the tomb.----
" Sing, for the bright flag, is waving above us,
Shed not a tear, it shall ever float high;

PRESSED PHILADA.

Thou red, white, and blue, enfold, and caress us,

Oh Starry flag lead us, when danger is nigh,
Oh starry flag lead us, when danger is nigh.

[3rd verse,]

Our bright starry banner, in triumph and peace
Will sink in oblivion all wars ---- they shall cease ---;

The world will be then, as a paradise bright,
Where stars, and stripes reign, in a glory of light.

" Sing, for the bright flag, is waving above us,
Shed not a tear, it shall ever float high ----

Thou red, white, and blue, enfold, and caress us,

Oh, starry flag, lead us, when danger is nigh.

Oh Starry flag, lead us, when danger is nigh.

Julia O'Donoghue.