MAR -4 1918
©GE418602

THE SAMMIES OF THE U. S. A.

Words & Music
By

GEO. G. DOPP

Words of Chorus.

Don't be ashamed to be a Sammie,
The whole world knows it's some-one brave and manly,
All civilized creation, knows your worthy reputation,
And they're learning more about you ev'ry day,
You're the pride of your people and
your nation,
You're the finest bunch that ever marched away,
Give three cheers for the Star Spangled Banner,
And the Sammies of the U. S. A.

5

Published by GEO. G. DOPP
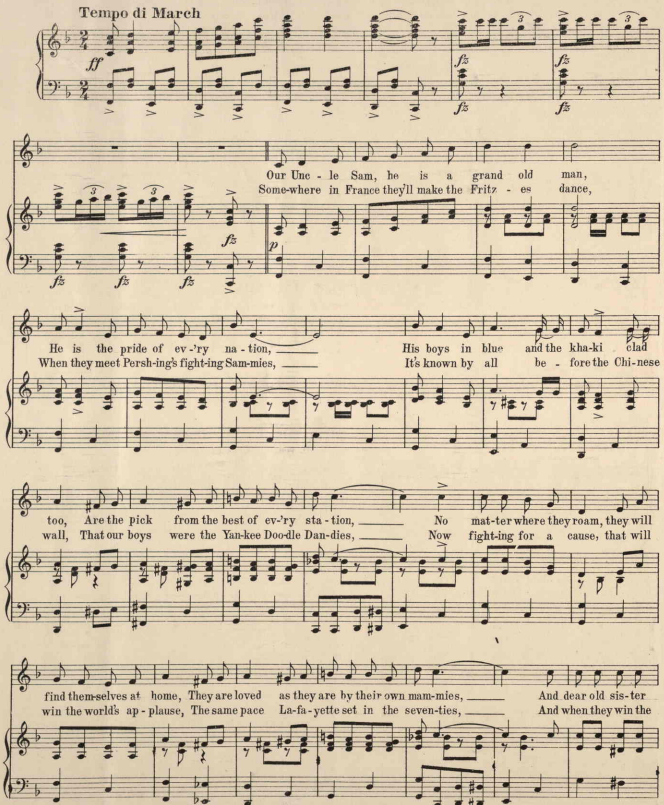
Distributed by
THE LEE JOHNSON MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
Los Angeles, Calif.

M1646
.5

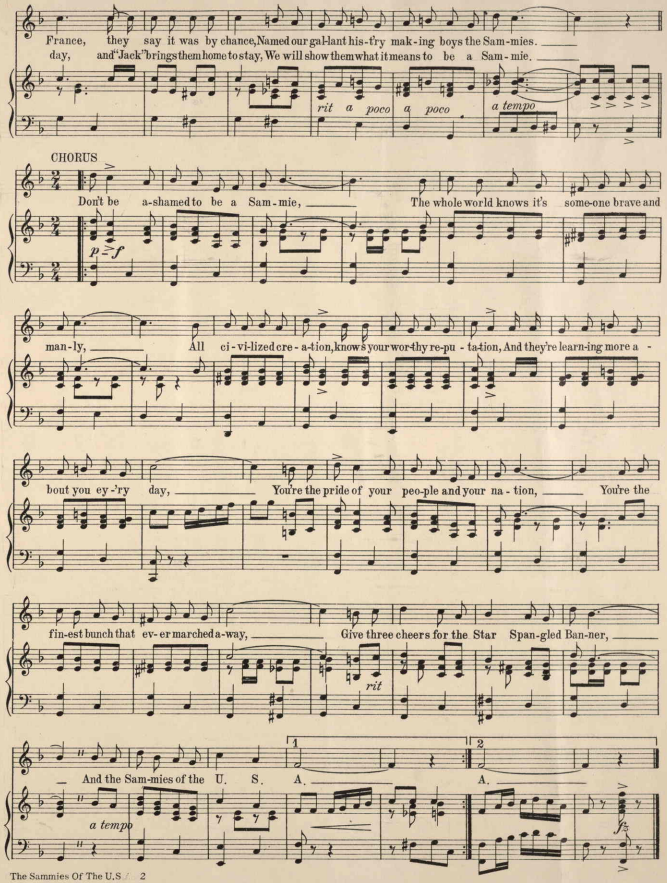
The Sammies Of The U.S.A.

Words and Music by
GEO. G. DOPP



Copyright 1918 by Geo. G. Dopp

International Copyright Secured



France, they say it was by chance, Named our gal-lant his-try mak-ing boys the Sam-mies.
day, and "Jack" brings them home to stay, We will show them what it means to be a Sam-mie.
rit a poco a poco
a tempo
CHORUS
Don't be a-shamed to be a Sam-mie,
The whole world knows it's some-one brave and p f man-ly,
All ci-vi-lized cre-a-tion, knows your wor-thy re-pu-ta-tion, And they're learn-ing more about you ev-'-ry day,
You're the pride of your peo-ple and your na-tion, You're the
fin-est bunch that ev-er marched a-way,
Give three cheers for the Star Span-gled Ban-ner,
rit
1
2
And the Sam-mies of the U. S. A.
A.
a tempo

426662