©CE408865
JUL 23 1917

Dedicated to Col. DANIEL MORIARTY and the FIGHTING 7th ILLINOIS INFANTRY

★S★T★A★R★S★
RED - WHITE & BLUE

Words and Music by
WILL J. CARTER AND AL DOTZLER

5

Published by
THE CARDOT ART and MUSIC CO.
3933 Arthington St. Chicago
Phone: Kedzie 6783.

M1646
.D

Stars-Red-White and Blue

WILL J. CARTER.
AL. DOTZLER.

Marcia

f

Old Glo - ry stars red, white and blue; thy splendrous lib - er - ty. Waves May all thy stars in splendor shine where patriot - ism burns, In p

love for thy pro - tect - ors true; where ev - er they may be. Brave hearts for lib - er - ty, like thine, as long as day re - turns. Fair hearts that made thee what thou art lie si - lent in the grave. But en - sign of our U. S. A. float out to save and free. So from thee nev - er shall de - part the free - dom that they gave.

war shall cease and world wide peace can her - ald vic - to - ry.

Published by Cardot Music Pub Co. 3933 Arthington St. Chicago.
Copyright 1917 by W. J. CARTER.

CHORUS Blow bu - gler blow thy sweet - est notes; 'till they doth kiss the sky For f those still fit - ted best to live, are brave e - nough to die Our mp Cause unfurled thru - out the world shall con - se-crate a - new For val - ors cheer; 'till all re - vere, the stars red white and blue, The stars ___, the stars red white and blue.
f

413502