WHEN THE DEVIL GETS THE KAISER WON'T HE JUMP.

Words and Music by J. F. DRENNEN.

1. When the boys of Un - cle Sam, . . . . .
2. Yes, we'll ral - ly to the call, . . . . .
3. All u - nit - ed now we stand, . . . . .

Introduction.

With Gen - er - al Persh - ing in com - mand, . . . . . And he gives the boys com - mand to fall in
For our flag shall nev - er fall, . . . . . Or be con - quered by an em - per - or or For the free - dom of ev - e - ry land, . . . . . It shall reign from shore to shore and sea to line: . . . . . There is some - thing go - ing to drop, . . . . . And the war will have to king: . . . . . For our cause we know is right, . . . . . And for free - dom we will sea: . . . . . We will show you, Kai - ser Bill . . . . . Like the boys of Bunk - er stop,

fight,
Hill,

Or the boys will march straight in - to old Ber - lin. . . . .
For the cause of right and free - dom we will win. . . . .
That old Ger - many shall for - ev - er - more be free. . . . .

CHORUS.

Take your ton - ic as you choose, We will give you your just dues, We'll compel you to sur - rend - er on your knees; . . . . . For the boys will nev - er stop, Till your head will have to drop, When the <sup>(dev - il)</sup> gets the Kai - ser, won't he jump, jump, jump?
