WHY DID YOU WORRY, MOTHER?

Mrs. Elva Hauser.

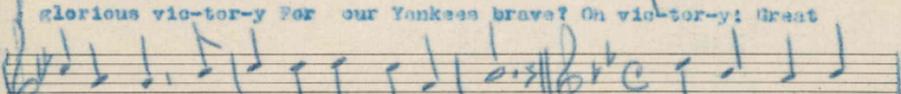

H. Jafrerro.

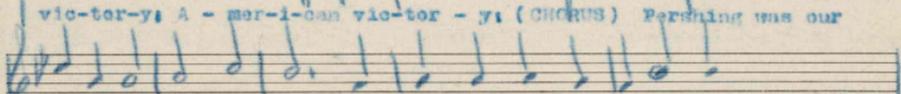

Why did you worry, mother, While I was a - way; Wasn't that a glorious vic-tor-y For our Yankees brave? Oh vic-tor-y! Great vic-tor-y; A - mer-i-can vic-tor - y; (CHORUS) Pershing was our

Gen-er-al And true blue; And when the war was over, He sent us back to you. Oh vic-tor-y! Great vic-tor-y! A - mer-i-can vic-tor-y!

We were under Gods protection,
And the proudest parent eye,
They cared for us in health,
Blessed those who had to die.
Oh Victory! Great Victory!
American Victory!

The Y. M. C. A. was our father,
Great and grand;
The Red Cross has our blessing,
For they gave a mother's hand.
For Victory! Great Victory!
American Victory!
