CHORUS

I am glad I've an Uncle named Sam, Believe me he is a man, Full polite, hates to fight, But when he starts he will do it right. He knows we are not to blame. His boys they sure are game, They will do their might to win this great fight For dear old Uncle Sam. I am Sam.

3 In every hillside, village and town,
 They all bought liberty bonds
 And are furnishing us flour, sugar and corn,
 And still have plenty at home.
 They all are happy and merry
 Enjoying the best of myrth
 They have at the head of their family,
 One of the greatest men on earth.

4 When this war is over
 Things won't be the same
 You will neevp play in these countries
 No more of your Kaisers games.
 We are tired of Prussianism.
 We are not going to have no sham
 You just will shape you up a government
 Something like Uncle Sam's.
