Said Kai-ser Bill of Prus-sian land, we'll go thru Belgium 'cause we can, Then on to Par-is Then Kai-ser Bill as you have seen, he put to sea the sub-ma-rine. Said Un-cle Sam I
The Rus-sian Bear lay on the snow, and would not af-ter Ger-mans go At aw-ful sight of

we will go, and all the world shall know. That the Kai-ser is the one who rules the world—do not think that neu-trals he will sink. But the Kai-ser on-ly wants to rule the world—Belgiums dead, the French all hung their head. The I-tal-ian Cross still guards Pi-a-ves shore—

— The English Bull be-gan to roar, the Rus-sian Bear growled at the door. Said Kai-ser just keep — The Ea-gle's wings spread on the sea, don't dare to take a whack at me. For I'll be sure to — The Stars and Stripes lead in the fray, our coun-try saw no oth-er way. the Kai-ser still, if you don't your folks I'll kill The Bull and Bear and all shall me a - dore scream, you may think it all a dream But the Sammies will come pour-ing o'er the sea. _____

 now, all the oth-er coun-tries bow Where would our free-dom be some-oth-er day? _____
