VOICE

VAMP

Hear that band, it's Sam - mies march - ing, —
Here they come, our col - or bear - ers, —

— Hear the cheers for each lad with a gun; — Stand - ing there are two old — In their eyes there's a look, do or die; — Two old men with heads un - sol - diers. — Who had fought back in six - ty - one. — Though one wore the cov - ered, — Both sa - lute as the flags go by. — For en - e - my un - ion blue, then, — The oth - er the reb - el gray, — And now days are o - ver, — Their sons now march side by side, — And as each one gives a son to go, With the boys who march a - way.

 their two hands in hon - or clasp, Each one smiles with hon - est pride.

CHORUS

Long a - go one fought for Lin - coln, - While the oth-er fought for Lee; - Now their boys march off to - geth-er - To the trench-es o'er the sea. - Right there by the side of a lad from Vir-gin - ia There marches a boy from Maine; - For at last they've laid a way un-ion blue and reb-el gray, Now they're all dressed the same. - Long a same. -

A Laddie in France is Dreaming (Little Girlie Of You)

Lyrics by EDDIE McGRATH
CHORUS

WILL E. DULMAGE

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of two systems. The first system includes a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a p f dynamic marking. The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "A lad-die in France is dream - ing — lit - tle girl - ie — of you, — Your dear eyes of blue haunt a sol - dier true, — And I know that he's".
