

MAY 31 1917

CAE405678

May 29

YOUR MOTHER'S A SOLDIER TOO

A MARCH BALLAD

DEDICATED TO THE MOTHERS OF AMERICA

COURTESY-MARY MAURICE VITAGRAPH CO.,

LYRICS BY Mell Faris

EAST-FARIS CO.,
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
BLOOMINGTON, IND. U.S.A.

MUSIC BY Ed East

M1646

.E

6

YOUR MOTHER'S A SOLDIER TOO

Words by MELL FARIS

Music by
ED. EAST

Slow with feeling

VOICE

A sol - dier boy of the U. S. A. Had come to say good - bye, — His
The boy in blue died a he - ro true, His coun - try's flag to save, — fa - ther stood be - side him, — The tear - drops dimmed his eye. — God

'Neath a mound of flow - ers — The sol - dier boy was laid. — At bles - and keep you safe my boy, Then bowed his silv' - ry head, — And break - of day came a let - ter gray, From the fa - ther tried and — Post -

as the bu-gle sound-ed — The old man soft-ly said: — script, "My boy we love you, Your moth-er's a sol-dier too."

rit.

CHORUS

Your moth-er's a sol-dier, too, my boy, — She is brav-er far than you, — She's giving all she has in this wide, wide world, For the old Red, White and Blue. Then rit.

march to the front with a sol-dier's pride, With a heart that's brave and true, Just re-mem-ber my boy, you're our pride and joy, And your moth-er's a sol-dier, too. — sol-dier, too.

407233