LAND OF MINE

By

Lillian Bell

I
When the eagle, sternly gazing,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Saw the war torch fiercely blazing,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Then he scoured forth his ball,
Crying out to one and all,
That autocracy must fall!
Land of mine!

II
At his call we gave our treasure,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Men and money without measure,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Olive drab and navy blue,
Mile on mile marched into view!
Service flags for us and you!
Land of mine!

III
Gave we sons and gave we daughters,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Fearless of mine-laden waters,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Bridges of boats across the sea,
With Old Glory flying free!
Our beloved we gave to thee—
Land of mine!

IV
Well we knew what we were giving,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Years of thy traditions' living,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Eager nations read the scroll—
Stout of heart and clean of soul,
Standard bearers of the whole,
Land of mine!

V
Sound retreat? Uncomprehending!
Land of mine, land of mine!
Forward march! For lines are bending!
Land of mine, land of mine!

On their strength a city leans!
"Fight at will!" Through shifting scenes
Hear the shouts of our Marines!
Land of mine!

VI

Never can their deeds of glory,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Ere be told in song or story,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Salters in an icy sea,
Shouting, singing lustily
In the dark, that hope might bel-
Land of mine!

VII

Flying men! To fear a stranger,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Seeking ice and courting danger,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Kin of clouds and windy spaces,
Brothers of sky paths and places,
Sons of eagles—ace of ace!
Land of mine!

VIII

Never ending, marching, singing,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Knak-ckad, our lines went swinging!
Land of mine, land of mine!
Where the foeman's emblem flew,
Up our flag—red, white and blue!
This the goal they kept in view,
Land of mine!

IX

Mounting as an eagle plonk,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Thou hast kept thy free domain,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Soon shall all the nations be,
Schools of ~~the~~ thy democracy,
Give us thanks to God for thee!
Land of mine!

CHORUS--

Never can their deeds of glory,
Land of mine, land of mine!
Ere be told in song or story,
~~Land of mine, land of mine!~~
Land of mine, land of mine!
Speed and action, strength and might,
"Fight at will, but win the fight!"
God give vict'ry to the right!
Land of mine!

mine!

mine!

ight!"

Ne-er can their deed of glo-ry - Land of mine, land of mine!

'Ere be told in song or sto-ry - Land of mine, land of mine!

Speed and ac-tion, strength and might, "Fight at will but win the fight!"

God give vic-tory to the right, Land of mine!
