1. There's sure - ly some com - mo - tion, From the
2. There are he - roes in the trench - es, In the moun - tains to the o - cean, There's the sound of march - ing thou - sands in the air:..... fields and at the bench - es, There are sol - diers who don't wear a un - i - form:.....

There are bu - gles loud - ly call - ing, In - to line the men are fall - ing, And the
We could sing the praise in vers - es, Of a my - ri - ad of nurs - es, Who have call to arms is an - swered ev - 'ry - where..... Don't you hear the brave - ly stood be - fore the bat - tles storm..... There's the sweet - heart, sound of drum - ming, Don't you see the fel - lows com - ing, Can you beat the sol - diers of the wife and moth - er, There's the sis - ter and the broth - er, Fight - ing wea - ry bat - tles ev - 'ry.

line?..... It's the pep we put be - hind them, That will make you al - ways where..... But we're pull - ing all to - geth - er And we'll strike the fair - er find them With their head up high and al - ways feel - ing fine..... weath - er When the right - eous task is fin - ished o - ver there.....

CHORUS.

Wel - come, Mis - ter Sol - dier, there's a job for you to do,..... You may not be at the ver - y front, You may not bear all the bat - tle's brunt, But there is work for you;... Wher - e'er you are on land or sea, this toast to you we'll hand,..... "To be who cares, and he who dares, To ev - 'ry one who hard-ship bears, May four-leafed clov-ers grow in pairs, Wher - ev - er you may land."
