

FEB 27 1918

THAT GRAND OLD GENTLEMAN (UNCLE SAM)

THE FAMOUS AND BELOVED

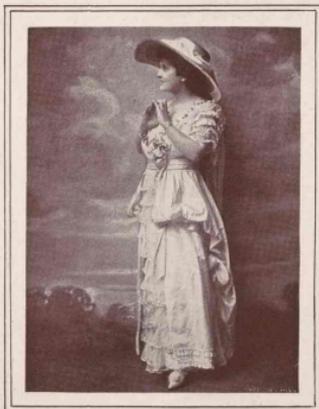

KITTY CHEATHAM'S

OWN SELECTION FROM THE MANY POPULAR
AMERICAN PATRIOTIC SONGS

Words
By
Will D. Cobb

Music
By
Gus Edwards

AS FIRST INTRODUCED BY MISS CHEATHAM
AT HER ORCHESTRAL RECITAL AT CARNEGIE HALL
NOV. 27TH 1917

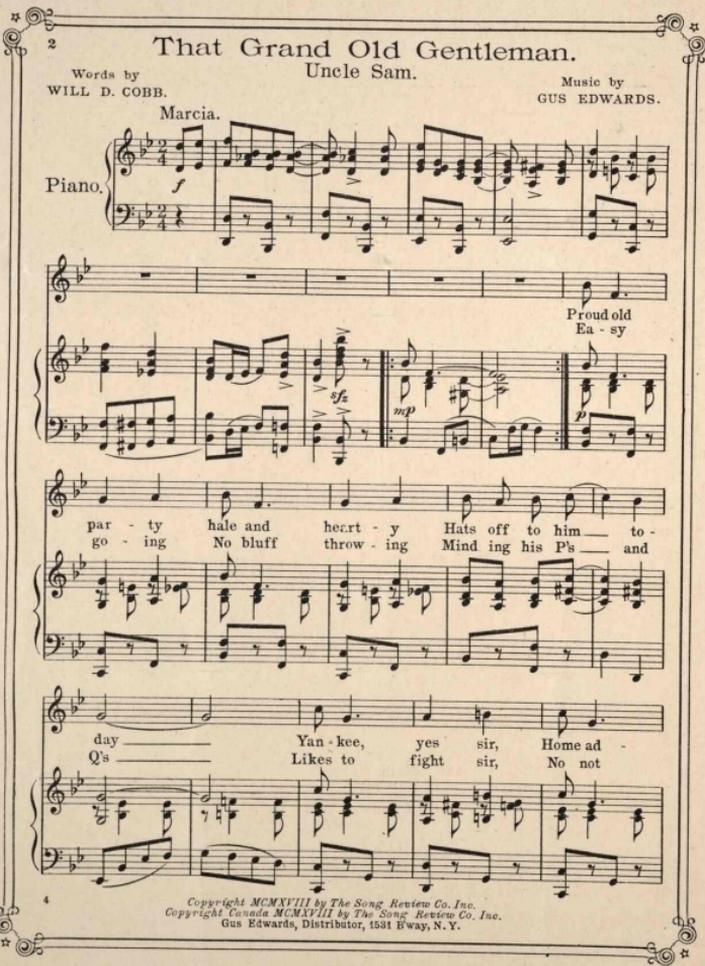

THE SONG REVIEW CO., INC.

GUS EDWARDS, DISTRIBUTERS

1531 BROADWAY
New York

MAXWELL SILVER
Gen'l Mng'r

SIXTY CENTS

That Grand Old Gentleman. Uncle Sam.

Words by
WILL D. COBB.

Music by GUS EDWARDS.

Marcia.

Piano.

Proud old Ea - sy par - ty hale and heart - y Hats off to him - to - go - ing No bluff throw - ing Mind ing his P's - and day - Yan - kee, yes sir, Home ad - Q's Likes to fight sir, No not

Copyright MCMXVIII by The Song Review Co. Inc.
Copyright Canada MCMXVIII by The Song Review Co. Inc.
Gus Edwards, Distributor, 1204 Eway, N. Y.

dress, sir, Wash - ing - ton U. S. A.
quite, sir, Just to proud to re - fuse

— His face is fa - mil - iar to you and to me —
— He's tak - ing a trip for his health o'er the sea —

— But some folks far a - cross the sea:
— Last time I heard from him said he.

— If to for get how he looks — you're in - clined —
— I'm do - ing fine all the fam - i - ly's well

4

— Just paste this pic - ture in your mind. —
 — Yours tru - ly Un - cle Sam - u - el. —

Chorus.

He's long and lean and lan - ky, — And his locks are like the snow — But he's just as young a Yan - kee as a hun - dred years a -

That Grand Old Gentleman. 4

go. ————— We're his hun-dred mil - lion nep - hews. —

— Proud to call him Un - cle Sam ———— And we'll go to the mat — at the drop of the hat For that grand old gen - tle - man. He's man.

That Grand Old Gentleman. 4

