Flag and Honor

M1646
.F

Soldier adaptation.

©CLE406147

MAY 19 1917

Flag and Honor.

By D. A. Columbia
nom de plume.

Rally, rally! Call has come to Fair play's law, as each land knows, to Brothers all of many lands have Smile and song amidst our tears, we Every nation's honor! Arise follow fearlessly our dear flag, it govern world or playground. Let's pledge in truth our call, Play Fair! Love now shamrock the gauntlet. Their lives laid on the altars prove, of cheer thistle love of honor. Our tears are naught! Low sow our hearts, in Every stands for honor. Hold high the standard, Right not might! Let Honor and love freedom. Hold high &c.
One blood is true manhood. Hold high &c.
gratitude to honor. God given honor binds all lands In No more flinch from such a fight. See manhood's might arise and fight In brotherhood to peaceful ends. When war is o'er let all be friends. Then [Accelerate slightly, except last chorus.]
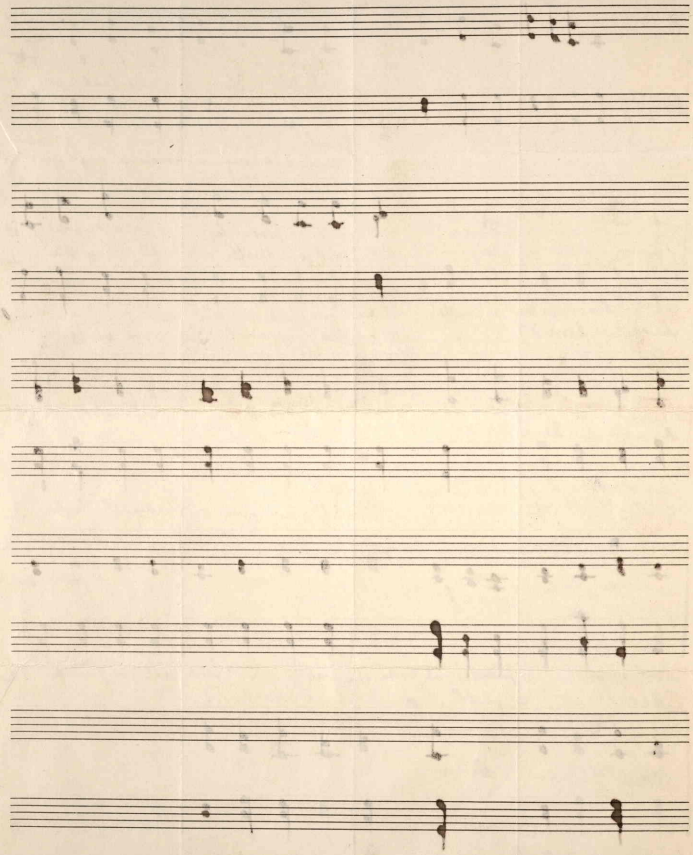
Liberty and honor.
make true peace with honor.

M1646
.F

Copyrighted by author;
certificate to G. W. Stanley, Glenview, Ill. Frank Galloway Starkey.

B.F.W.C. Made in U. S. A. for The B. F. Wood Music Co., Boston, New York, Leipzig, London.
No. 1.



410215

To Register of copyrights Flag and Honor. 1 cp. sheet music enclosed, and fee 1.00, also.

MAY 19 1917 Washington D. C. ©cl.E 406147

1. Rally, rally! Call has come to every nations honor!
We follow proudly our dear flag; it ever stands for honor.

Chorus. Hold high the standard, Right not might.
Let no man flinch in such a fight.
See manhood's might arise and fight
For Liberty and Honor!

[or playground.

2. Fairplay's Law, as each land knows, to govern world,
Let's pledge in truth our call, Play Fair! Love Honor, and Save Freedom!

Chorus. Hold high &c.

send certificate to G. H. Starkey, Glenview, Ill.

see next sheet.
G. H. S. may 17th 1917.

MAY 19 1917

Flag and Honor. 2nd sheet.

3. Brothers all of many lands have now thrown down the gauntlet!
Their lives laid on the alter prone, of one blood is true manhood.

Chorus. Hold high &c.

4. Smile and Song amidst our tears, we cheer their love of honor.
Our tears are naught. Low bow our hearts in gratitude to honor!

Chorus 4th verse. God given honor binds all lands,
In Brotherhood to peaceful ends.
When war is o'er let all be friends;
Then make true peace with honor.

C.H. Columbian. nom de plume

Author
Grace Hathaway Starbey.

Copyright by
Grace Hathaway Starbey,
May 17th, 1917.

am an American descended from Mayflower. Wish much to be naturalized!