GLADYS L. FLINT

Lib-er-ty for- ev-er, Hur-rah, boys, Hur-rah: From the skies we took our sym-bol, All
The Ten-tions got fooled, when they fought for a Hun, A Hun, the son of Satan, O glo-ry to the star. Then we carried the float- ing flag, boys, And chased the fleeing Hun, and how we made them run! Yes, we got them on the land, boys, We got them on the sea; We were vic- to- ry was our boys. For we made the bul- lets hum-fight- ing for our God, boys. We were sure of vic- to- ry.

CHORUS

Li-ber-ty for- ever, hur-rah, boys, hur-rah: We fought them for our God, boys. For God who rules a - bove. Then we'll shout a song of cheer, boys, We'll sing that song a - gain. When we come sail - ing home, boys, All free from war and pain.

Columbia, the home of the free and the brave,
 Sent it's heroes to battle,
 Fond liberty to save.
 Yes, we fought for France and England,
 And other countries too.
 We carried our banner with us,
 The red, the white, the blue.

CHORUS--

Liberty forever, hurrah, boys, hurrah,
 We fought them for our God, boys,
 For God who rules above.
 Then we'll shout a song of cheer, boys,
 We'll sing that song again
 When we come sailing home, boys,
 All free from war and pain.

The Hun thought that he could
 Whip every thing in sight;
 When we boys got into action,
 We showed him how to fight.
 Yes, we took away his kingdom,
 And broke his royal sway;
 We sent him into exile,
 For his crimes he'll have to pay.

CHORUS--

Liberty forever, etc.
