The musical score is written on ten staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes. The second staff includes a 'Vamp' section, indicated by a double bar line and a wavy line. The third staff continues the melody. The fourth staff features a 'Chorus' section, marked with a double bar line and a wavy line, and a key signature change to two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The fifth staff continues the chorus melody. The sixth staff includes a section with a sharp sign (#) under a note. The seventh staff continues the melody. The eighth staff continues the melody. The ninth staff continues the melody. The tenth staff ends with a double bar line and a wavy line.

WE'LL BING 'EM ON THE RHINE

Words and Music
By Jack Mahoney
& Allan Flynn.

I stood upon the corner as the Yanks went marching by,
I saw that "do or die" in ev'ry soldier's eye;
At first they started humming then they burst into a song,
Each one singing, swinging right along.
They kept in step with ev'ry note and word,
And as I listened this is what I heard:-

CHORUS.

We'll bing, bing, bing 'em on the Rhine, boys,
We'll show the Kaiser, too, what a Yankee bunch can do,
When we swing, swing, swing right thro' their line, boys,
We will take 'em and we'll make 'em yelp - HELP !
When they hear those guns go bing-a-ling,
This will be the Yankee countersign,
They will soon know all about it,
Get together, let us shout it,
Bing ! Bang ! Bing ! Bang !
Bing 'em on the Rhine.

They sang, "we'll make the Kaiser whistle "Yankee Doodle Do",
We'll crown the crown Prince, too, like we have crowned a few;
We'll make the world safe for Democracy, you bet we will,
But it won't be safe for Kaiser Bill.
And when we all go swimming in the Rhine,
We'll hang our clothes on Hindenburg's old line.
