©CLE419180 R
MAR 15 1918

The Freedom of the World.

Words and Music by George K. Engelmann

While in wonder you are thinking of the boys in uni-forms who have given up all to fight for the free-dom of the world: Do your bit in every way you can and put your trust in God then

Vic-to-ry is certain for the Red the White and Blue The world of Freedom lies far-o'er the sea the way of Peace is there, and

Refrain—

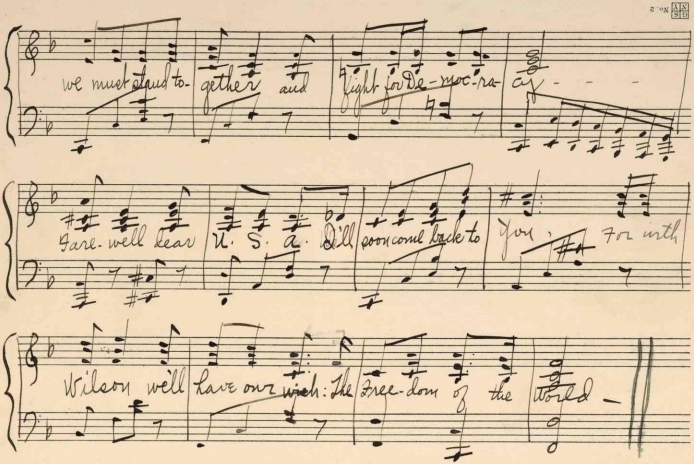
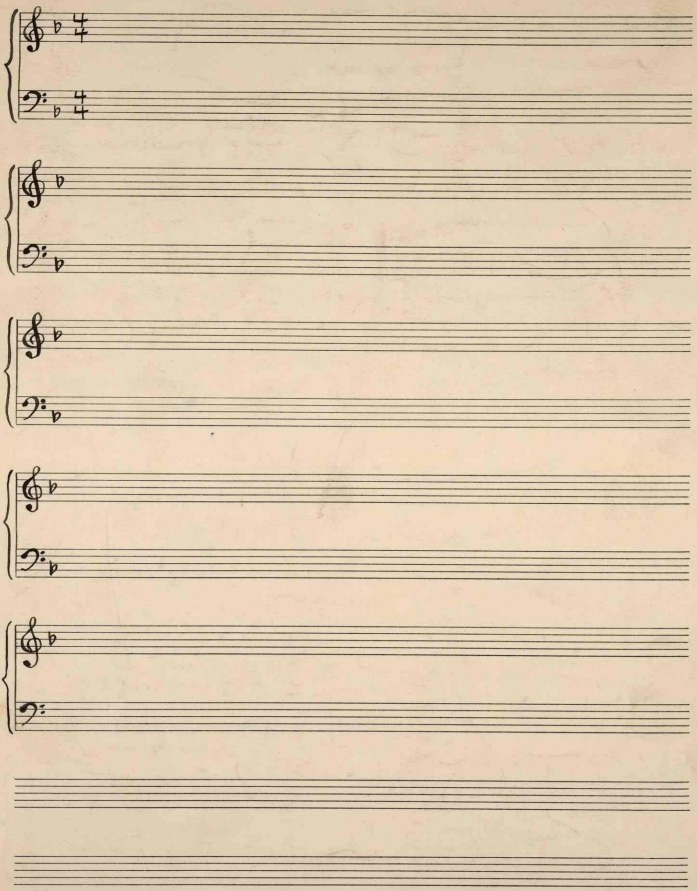
M1646
.E



2nd Verse


Tho' the Battle now is raging - Tho' the fighting may be hard
The great day of peace is near and the Freedom of the World
For our cause is just - our choice is one and By Wilson we'll stand, then Victory is certain for the red the White and Blue.