America's Battle Cry.

(to the tune of "Dixie.")

1. Arise, ye sons of Freedom, rise!
At call of country and Allies,
To be free! to be free!
On the land! on the sea!
With bugle call and trumpet sound,
Let all the country now resound -
To your arms! to your arms!
Tyranny doth alarm.- Cho.
3. The Tyrant's hand that's wet with gore,
Shall never trespass on our shore;
For we go- to restore,
Liberty evermore!
Oh, see us rise ten million strong!
To fight for Right against the Wrong:
Don't you know, why we go?
Ah, we love Freedom so!- Cho.

CHORUS.

- We'll fight for Peace and Freedom,
To arms! to arms!
To foreign land with Allied band -
To live or die for Freedom!
Away! Away!
Away to join the Allies!
March on! March on!
To live or die for Freedom.
4. Our Fathers died to set us free,
And won for us sweet Liberty:
Bugle blow! we're aglow!
March away! in array!
Oh, sweet is Freedom to the soul!
'Tis worth the fight to win the goal:
Help us Lord, in the fight!
To overcome by thy might!- Cho.
2. Old Glory ripples in the air,
A crimson sunburst here and there;
Hear her say, now to you -
"Oh, be true, or you'll rue!"
And as she ripples in the air,
She says to tyrants everywhere -
"Oh, beware! do not dare!
Old Glory in the air!"- Cho.
5. And in the future years to come,
When poets sing of brave deeds done,
You shall hear, and revere -
This story oh, so dear!
We left our homes and loved ones dear,
Just brushed away the falling tear!
Then away! o'er the sea!
For to win Liberty.- Cho.
