Sweet-heart, dear, when war is o - ver I'll be wait - ing.....Then, as now, your maid-ens
When you ral - ly 'neath the fair - est wav - ing em - blem..... Be it in a for - eign heart will e'er be true;.....Through the trials of free-dom's no - ble-heart-ed ar - my,..... I'll be land so far a - way,..... You will know that flag pro - tects your sun - ny maid - en,..... In the wait - ing in the U. S. A. for you,.....Though you're leagues, and leagues a - cross the might - y peer - less land your na - tive U. S. A. Just to know your loy - al - ty to home, and o - cean..... On the fields of France, or by the Ger-man Rhine..... Love's af - fec-tion, day by coun - try..... Oh! it fills my throb-bing heart with fer-vent pride..... When your vic - to-ries are day grows sweet-ly fon - der..... Time and dis-tance sev-ers not our love di - vine..... crowned with peace-ful glo - ry..... Then I hope to be a no - ble sol-dier's bride.....

REFRAIN

Though you're leagues and leagues a - cross the night - y o - cean..... On the fields of France or by the Ger-man Rhine..... Love's af - fec-tion, day by day grows sweet - ly
