Our Yankee Boys

Words by KATHARINE STINE

Music by MARIE EVERETT

Marcia

The Kai - ser thought the world a gar - den For his sol diers to fence in He Now Un - cle Sam don't want his cas - tle Neith - er does he want his crown He did - n't count on the U. S. A. And her brave and gal - lant men His wants jus - tice for the Bel - gi - ans And the lives that have gone down Our lord - ship bet - ter now take heed And lis - ten to good ad - vice Or U. S. sol - diers are fight - ers They wil - ling - ly give their lives To Un - cle Sam will change his tail - or And make him wear the stripes. change his cow - ard - ly "Kam - er - ad" And make him do what's right

CHORUS

Hur - rah! Hur - rah! for our Yan-kee boys In their kha - ki trim and fine They'll build bridg - es of their own And on them cross the Rhine Hur - rah! Hur - rah! for our Yan-kee boys

With Per - shing there in line They'll see the Kai - ser shall be - have Or they'll pitch him in the Rhine. Hur - Rhine.
