©CLE440863
NOV -4 1918
NOV 5 1918

March Song

"Mother - Sister - Sweetheart - Were Home Again"

Words by Mary Allison

Music by Walter Eisenger

Copyrighted 1918 by Walter Eisenger

M1646
.E

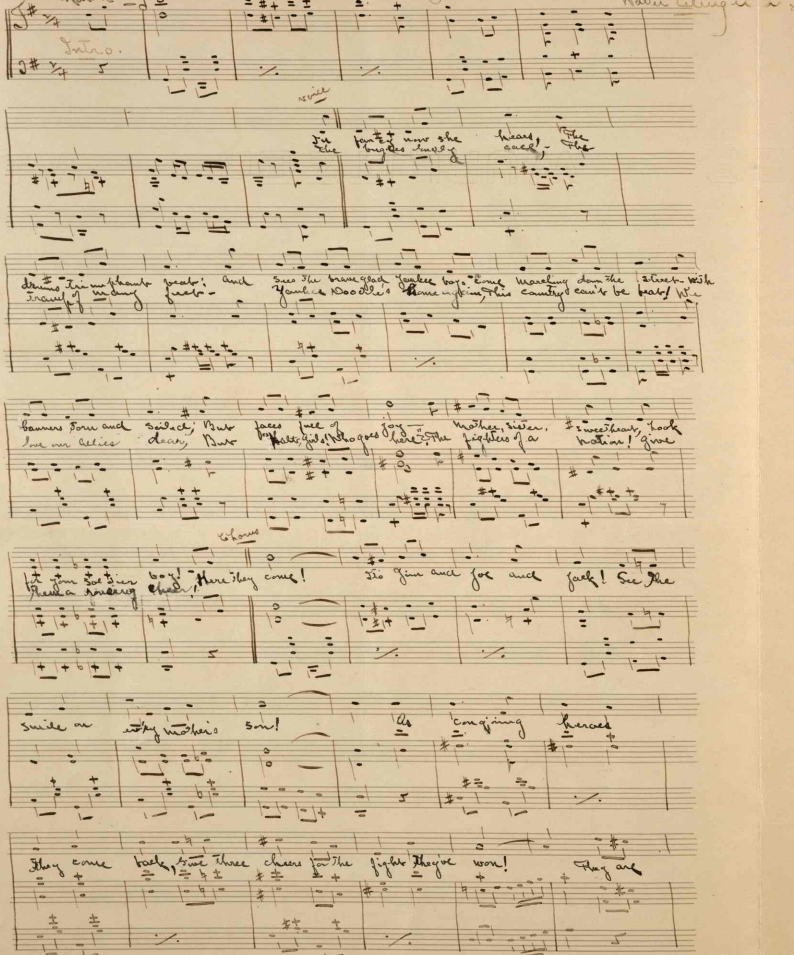
Words by Mary Pillion

"Mother, Sister, Sweetheart"

"Here Home Again"

Music by Walter Edwards

March Song



Intro.
Voice
For the bugles sang, "Over the hills and far away," Drums Tramp of marching feet - and see the brave good fellows boys. Come marching down the street with Yank-ee Doodle's home again, this country can't be beat! We banners torn and faded, But faces full of pride, Who goes for love, mother, sister, sweetheart, look for mother! give Chorus
Here they come! Here they come! Hip hip hip marching To the strains of Dixie,

There have such glorious men — They left such their vine — Well bear them shouts Oh, mother! We're home again!
Home a - gain Home again — Oh another mere home a - gain