America It's Up To You (Poem)

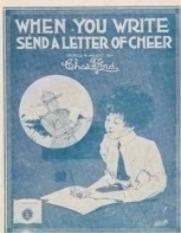

TO BE RECITED AFTER SINGING CHORUS

SING LAST TWO LINES

Now that we are in the fight
And get in a sandy trench
For a cause we know is right
We leave the peaceful bench
Store our stencils, books and pencils
And put on a suit of blue
Forget our grieves, roll up our sleeves
And show what we can do.
America! It's up to you!
Washington and Andrew Jackson

They had the same attraction
Perry and Abe Lincoln, too.
Dewey at Manila Bay
Taylor at Monterrey
And Custer fought like (well)
What Sherman said it was
So it's up to you to go and do
What they've done before for you.
