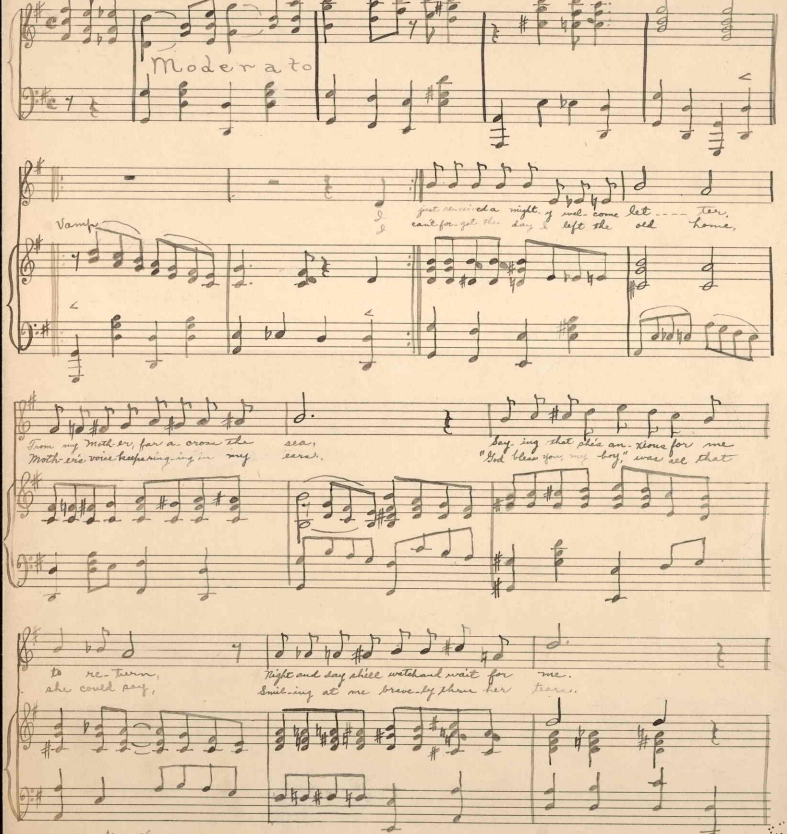
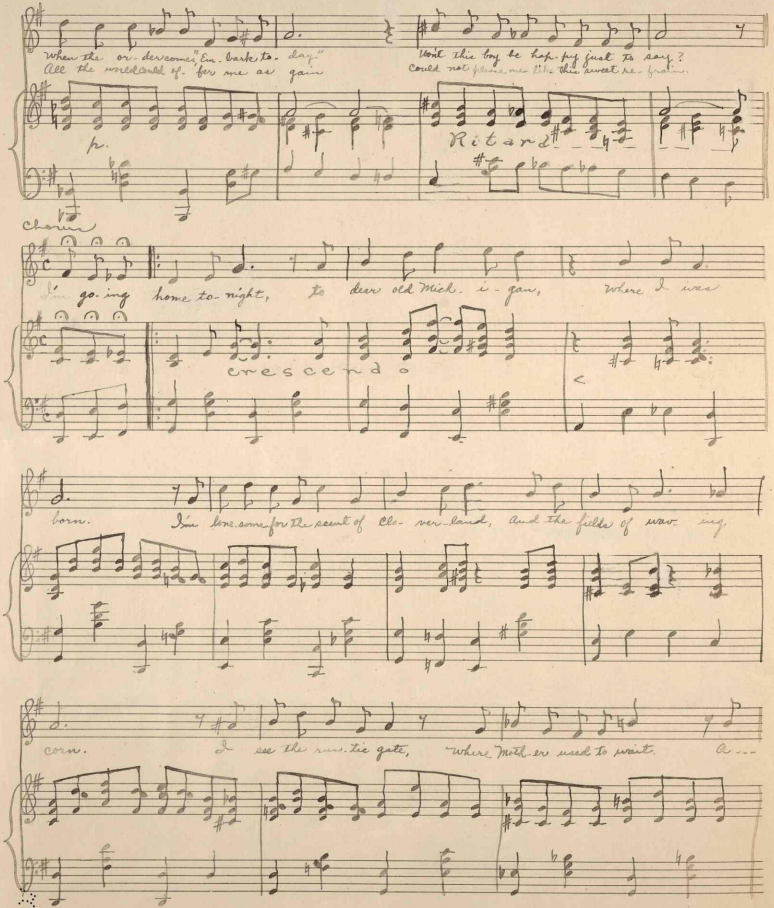
©CLE440493
DEC 21 1918

Words and music by Lillian Poole Fournier.

I'm Going Home Tonight to Michigan,
"Where I was Born."



M1646
No 1 .F



When the or-derscome "Em-bark to-day"
All the world and I of- for me a-gain
Wont this boy be hop-ing joul to say?
Could not please me Bet-ter than sweet re-frain.
p.
Ritard
Chorus
I'm go-ing home to-night, to dear old Mich-i-gan, where I was cresc e n d o born. I'm long-ing for the scent of Clo-ver land, and the fields of wav-ing corn. I see the rus-tic gate, where Moth-er used to wait. A...

gain'd hear her blow the din-ner horn.
It's call-ing me back home, tonight to Mich-i-gan where I was cendo
1.
2.