

APR 15 1918

©CLE423205 R ✓

A National Anthem

✓ America. ✓

George Washington — The Father of Our Country.

Words by

LOUIS WAGNER, St. Louis, Mo.

Composition by

F. FETTINGER, Arlington, Minn.

PRICE:

15 Cents the Copy.

1 Dozen . . . $1.50.

100 . . . $10.00.

Address: Louis Wagner, 3600 Texas Ave.,
St. Louis, Mo.

Copyright by Louis Wagner, 1918.

Louis Lange Publishing Co., Print.

M1646

.F

A NATIONAL ANTHEM

(UNISON) 4

see last p.

L. Wagner 2

F. Fettinger 3

1. A - mer - i - ca, most bless - ed land, where
 2. A strong de - fense thus is our land a -
 3. Its stripes are red, as blood and love, true
 4. May bless - ings crown thy wide do - mains, pre - free - men e'er shall gath - er from ev - ry na - tion, mong the hosts of na - tions, and peace and pow'r shall cour - age e'er in - flam - ing; its stripes are white, as served thro' hard con - ten - tions, thy won - drous fields of ev - 'ry strand, and dwell in peace to - geth - er; where e'er com - mand our flag in all re - la - tions. A - lamb and dove, hu - man - i - ty re - claim - ing; its fruits and grains, thy in - dust - ries, in - ven - tions, thy high and low, and rich and poor u - bove all scepters, and crowns, and thrones our field of blue and stars so bright do com - merce, en - ter - prise, and dare, thy nite as men with men, and none is less and no - ble flag holds sway, en - light - ning dis - tant

 faith and hope pro - claim, and lib - er - ty, light, plains and moun - tains grand, thy sons of nerve and

none is more than com - mon cit - i - zen!
 climes and zones with free - dom's hope - ful ray.
 might, and right! "Old Glo - ry" spells its name.
 daugh - ters fair, my coun - try, glor - ious land!

A NATIONAL ANTHEM

(MIXED CHORUS) 5

L. Wagner

F. Fettinger

1. A - mer - i - ca, most bless - ed land, where free - men e'er shall gather from
 2. A strong de - fence thus is our land a - mong the hosts of na - tions, and

3. Its stripes are red, as blood and love, true cour - age e'er in - flam - ing; its
 4. May blessings crown thy wide domains, preserved thro' hard con - ten - tions, thy ev - 'ry na - tion, ev - 'ry strand, and dwell in peace to - geth - er; where peace and pow'r shall e'er command our flag in all re - la - tions. A - stripes are white, as lamb and dove, hu - man - i - ty re - claim - ing; its won - drous fields of fruits and grains, thy in - dust - ries, in - ven - tions, thy high and low, and rich and poor u - nite as men with men, and above all seep - ters, crowns, and thrones our no - ble flag holds sway, en - field of blue and stars so bright do faith and hope pro - claim, and com - merce, en - ter - prise, and dare, thy plains and moun - tains grand, thy none is less and none is more than com - mon cit - i - zen!

 light - ning dis - tant climes and zones with free - dom's hope - ful ray.

lib - er - ty, light, might, and right! "Old Glo - ry" spells its name.
 sons of nerve and daugh - ters fair, my coun - try, glor - ious land!