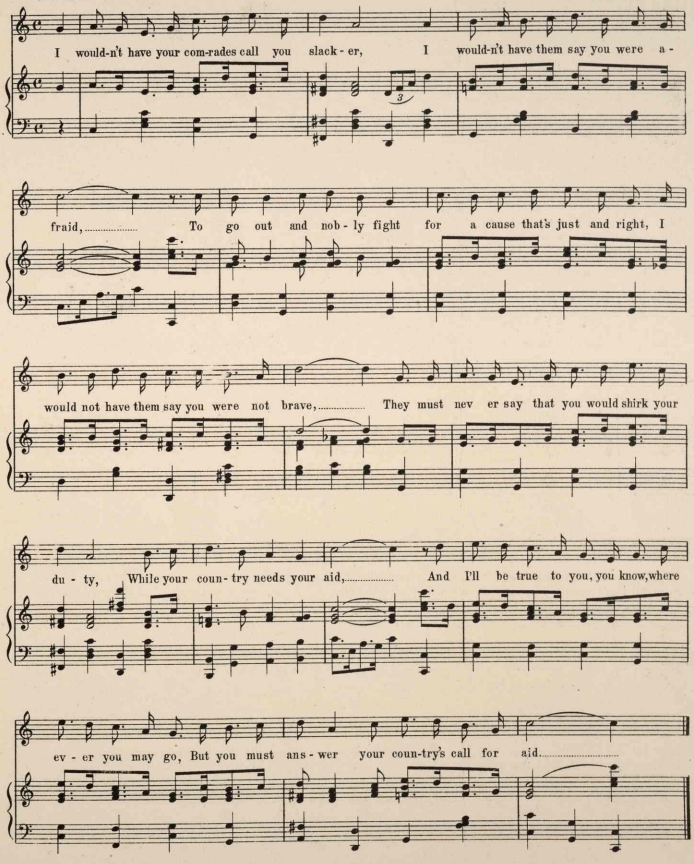
CHORUS



I would-n't have your com-rades call you slack-er, I would-n't have them say you were afraid, To go out and nob-ly fight for a cause that's just and right, I would not have them say you were not brave, They must nev er say that you would shirk your du-ty, While your coun-try needs your aid, And I'll be true to you, you know, where ev-er you may go, But you must ans-wer your coun-try's call for aid.
