Just A Little Star of Gold

Words by MABEL JULIENNE NAGEL

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

They have sung of the stars in Old Glo-ry, — They have sung of the stars a - Oh you lit-tle bright star in the win-dow, — Were you fash-ioned by God or bove, — They have sung of the star of Beth-le-hem's babe, And its men? — Did you once shine up there in the court of heav'n, And rays of peace, joy and love; — They have sung of the "Star of down on this world of sin; — Did you see the slaugh-ter of Ser-vice" — Of he-roes, their deeds, brave and bold, — But if all these ba-bies, — The crush-ing of Bel-gi-um's rose? — Did you see the stars the greatest is, A bright lit-tle star of pure gold.

 dy - ing lads in France, mowed down by hu-man-i - ty's foe?

CHORUS
 Just a star of gold a shi - ing, In the win-dow a glo - rious light; Just a lone-ly moth-er pin - ing. For her boy who died for right; Peace and joy to the sor-row-ing na - tions,

That prom-ise of cal-v'ry of old, Was re-deem'd by the "Sons of Moth - ers' And their lit - tle star of gold.
