The Little Bunk Across The Sea

Words by MRS EMMA VAUGHN

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

The musical score is written in 2/4 time. It begins with a piano introduction marked f (forte) in the bass clef. The melody is in the treble clef. The lyrics are as follows:

My heart is with my soldier, lad, In his bunk a - cross the My sol - dier's dressed in ol - ive drab, In his bunk a - cross the sea, And al - tho my life is lone and sad, I am wait - ing pa - tient - sea; While this war has made me ver - y sad, Yet so hap - py I will ly; His bod - y may be scarred and marred, But he's just the same to be When sol - dier boy comes march - ing home, With his shouts of vic - to - me, For he's my bon - nie sol - dier lad, In his bunk a - cross the ry; I'll be so proud of sol - dier boy And his bunk a - cross the sea.

CHORUS

To night my heart is sad and lone ly I want my sol dier lad, I won der if he sweet ly sleeps While

I am lone and sad. When the war is o'er And peace is here, How hap py I shall be! My sol dier lad will bid fare-well To his bunk a cross the sea.
