CHORUS

'Tis a broth-er like you, dear - ie, that ev - 'ry sis - ter needs; — 'Twould make this old world bet - ter and full - er of good deeds, — And now our coun - try's sol - dier of the U. S. A. — A. — A. — A.

And to our parents, dear,
 You were a kind true son;
 And as you grew much older,
 When the day's work was done
 We gathered round the fireside,
 Enjoyed the ev'ning hour,
 Your happy jokes and laughter
 Were sunshine after shower.

You grew to noble manhood
 And to your friends you proved
 A source of help and comfort,
 And many times you served
 To lighten others' burdens,
 Their minds with love you'd fill,
 So, when the U.S. called you
 I knew you'd say "I will."
