C-O-L-T, Colt

When Uncle Sam joined in the fray to beat the vicious Hun,
 When President Wilson sent our men to get them on the run,
 When Yankee cannon crossed the sea to down the German Gun,
 Who was the man that backed the Chief to have the job well done?

CHORUS

'Twas Colt, Colt C-O-L-T, Colt.
 He never failed the President
 When others tried to bolt.
 'Twas Colt, Colt, C-O-L-T, Colt;
 All hail the man from Rhody.
 Be sure he gets your vote.

2

When German subs were sent to sink our ships on neutral seas,
 When German spies made pacifists and paid them handsome fees,
 When Germans tried to stop our Flag from floating to the breeze,
 Who was the man that said they must be driven to their knees?

3

When Congressmen and Senators were studying the war
 And Overman drew up an act without a single flaw
 To give the President more power in military law,
 Who was the man that backed him up and never asked "What for?"

4

When Yankee boys had gone to France and jumped into the fray,
 And names of killed and wounded lads were cabled every day,
 When thousands more had left their homes and started on their way,
 Who was the man that cast a vote to give the boys more pay?
