MAY 10 1918 ©CLE423689

"The Lilies of France"

Words & Music by Andrew Fayscett
Minneapolis Minn.

Intro

f

Voice

p John-ny Soon her fz p

John-son of the In-fant-ry hailed far aan-swer came a-cross the sea Came from the way o'er the sea land of the free Crossed the

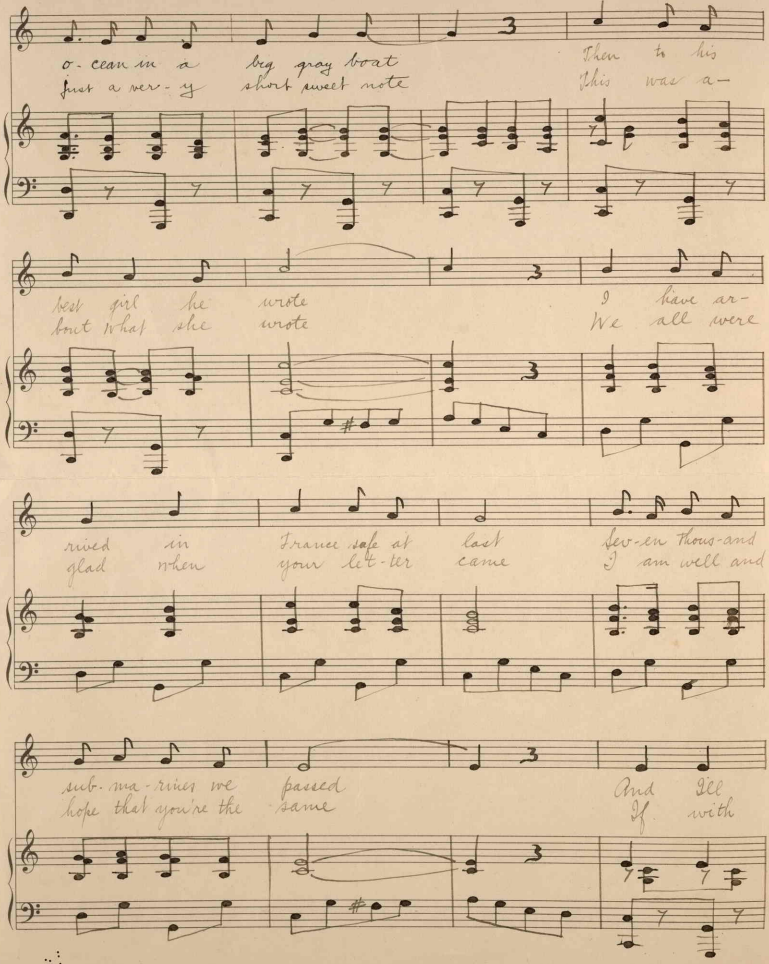
It was



o-cean in a big gray boat
just a ver-y short sweet note Then to his
This was a-best girl he wrote
bout what she wrote
I have ar-
We all were rived in France safe at last glad when your let-ter came Sev-en thous-and I am well and sub-ma-rines we passed hope that you're the same And I'll
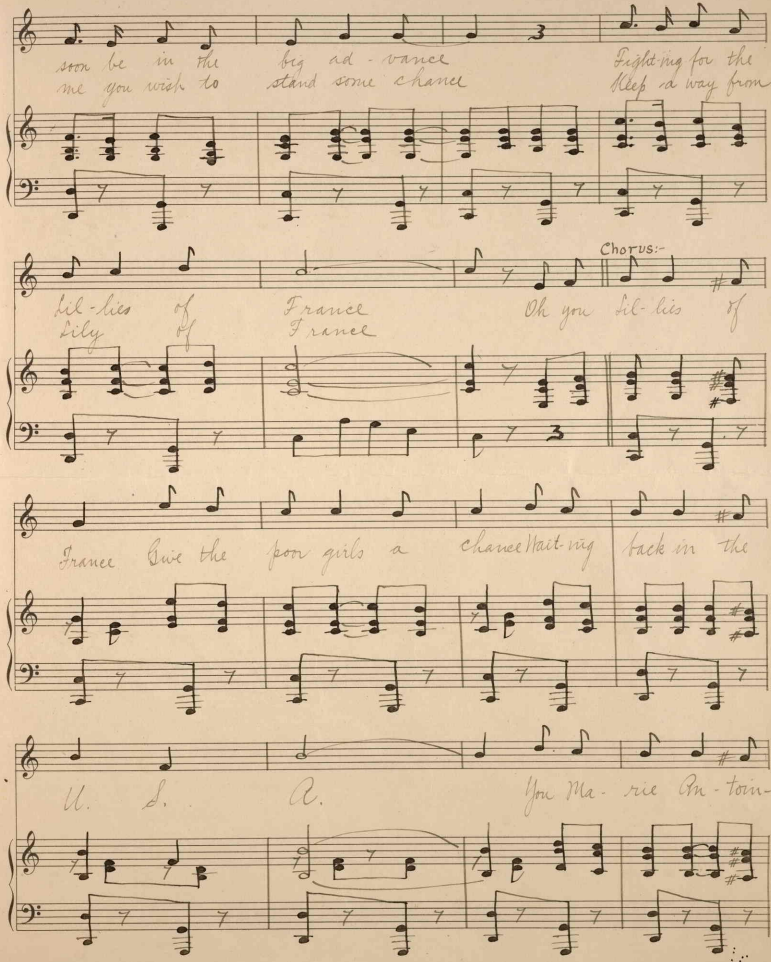
If with



soon be in the big ad - vance Fighting for the me you wish to stand some chance Keep a way from Chorus:- Lil - lies of France Oh you Lil - lies of Lily of France France Give the poor girls a chance Wait - ing back in the U. S. A. You Ma - rie Bi - toin - ette And you sis-ter Bab-ette Do not take our poor rooftrees a-way Oh you Lil-lies of France Keep you sis-ters and Aunts and our boys and the moon light apart They're a soft-hearted pack But we want them all back Oh you Liliies of France have a heart.