

FEB 23 1918

©GE 417407

Never Let America Desert Her Post

Words by
ELIZABETH EBLING

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING Co.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

H.1646
47

Never Let America Desert Her Post

Words by
ELIZABETH EBLING

Music by
LEO FRIEDMAN

Marcia

When the war is o - ver, Hap - py we will be, When the war is Ev - ry man and wom - an, In our broadwide land, Has a place to All the boys and girls too, have a place to work, They can sure - ly

o - ver vic - to - ry we'll see; Lib - er - ty for all men is our fer - vent fill and there they ought to stand; U - ni - ty is what we need to do our part a - be a help and nev - er shirk; Stand in line to do their best, no matter what it plea, We will shout and sing for joy when all are free.

right, So stand your ground and do your work with all your might.
be, So u - ni - ted in the right we'll make man free.

CHORUS

Then all we A - mer - i - cans will stand for the right,

Prin - ci - ples the on - ly thing for which we fight; We'll stand in the place where the world needs us most, And nev - er let A - mer - i - ca de - sert her post. Then post.

