H. F. FAIRWEATHER'S
PEACE SONGS

Based on Victor Hugo's Prophecy:

"In the twentieth century war will be dead, but man
will live.

For all there will be but one country, that country the whole earth."

Victor Hugo's Vision

In the Twentieth Century War will be dead; but Man will live! To all there will be but One Country— that Country the whole Earth

Dedication Hymn

H. F. FAIRWEATHER

The musical score is arranged in three systems. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. It is marked 'Lento'. The second and third systems are marked 'Moderato'. The score includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line.

1. Hail! dream of Peace!
 O that the firm reality
 We might achieve
 Thus to retrieve,
 The soul's lost principality
 In love's release.
2. Hail! vision vast!
 That sees the dire futility
 Of cruel war!
 Of this, no more!
 We claim man's full utility
 Too long procrast.
3. Prophetic good!
 The soul to man is vocative,—
 Evolvement plain
 To glorious reign;
 On earth is God inchoative
 In Brotherhood.

O Glorious Spirit, Patriotic Fire

H. F. FAIRWEATHER

The musical score is arranged in three systems. Each system contains a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat major), and the time signature is common time (C). The music is primarily chordal, with some melodic lines in the bass clef.

1. O Glorious Spirit, Patriotic Fire,
Thy flaming strength within each heart inspire;
Uprousing us from dreams to very deed,
Giving to every land a people freed.
2. O Glorious Spirit, spark of mighty power,
Thy force enkindling, make for us a tower,
A strong defence from every outward wile,
A stern defeat of every inward guile.
3. O Glorious Spirit, Light of Liberty,
Shine on till men are led by love to thee:—
That storm of hate, and deluges of blood,
Sever no more the ties of Brotherhood.

The Cause Demands the Woman

H. F. FAIRWEATHER

Andante

1. The Cause de-mands the Wo - man, Ay, Wo - man's ver - y heart; It needs the spirit, strength, and soul, That Wo - man must im - part.

rall.

2. The Cause demands the Woman,
Her star ascendant gleams,
And onward, upward beckons her
To rise from idle dreams.
3. The Cause demands the Woman,
Respond then Woman, thou
Wilt find fulfillment of thy race
Within thy grasping now.
4. The Cause demands the Woman
Rise, prophecy fulfill;
That all the thrilling universe
Resolve with thine "I will."

The Dawn of Peace

H. F. FAIRWEATHER

Marciale

1. 'Tis the ros-y dawn of Free-dom, War's deep shad-ows dis - ap-pear,
 3. 'Tis the ros-y dawn of Free-dom, Up, re-move the curse and ban,

Up, — up, the day's be-fore us, Up for the morn is here. Cho.
 Let the air re - sound the tri-umph, Man is no foe to man. Cho.

CHORUS after each verse.

Hail! hail the light of morn - ing, Hail con - se - cra - ted plan.

Life, new life is dawn - ing, dawn - ing The Broth - er - hood of man.

2. Hast thou not heard the sigh - ing? Has thou not felt war's pain?

Sure - ly thy heart is burn - ing For Peace in lov - ing reign. Cho.

Good Patriotic Governments the Wide World O'er

(A Solo or Mixed Quartett. In Press.)

By H. F. Fairweather. Mr. Fairweather offers to sing his "Peace Song" at any Peace Meetings within his reach, gratis.

1. Good Patriotic Governments,
We'll have such and nothing less!
Good Patriotic Governments
That shall the people bless;
The People save from cruel War
And give to Peace an open door;
From War's brutalities relieve,
And in the arts of Peace believe.
The People 'neath wartocracy
Are robbed of true democracy;
Slaves they find themselves and groan
Throbbing, panting for their own.

REFRAIN:

Good Patriotic Governments,
We'll have such the wide world o'er!
Good Patriotic Governments
To rule with Peace forevermore.

2. Good Patriotic Governments,
We'll have such now to arise!
Good Patriotic Governments
That hear the People's cries!
They cry for equal rights to live
Upon God's blessed earth;
They cry for equal rights to give
Their labor for its worth.
No starving People there shall be,
Earth yields for labor abundantly.
Rise, and set the People free
From robbery and monopoly.

Refrain.

Extracts From H. F. Fairweather's Message on LIFE AND VOICE CULTURE

LIFE THOUGHT THE BUILDER

"The law of life and the law of vibration are recognized as synonymous in expression with mind stuff or thought as its cause and builder; to illustrate—a cathedral is desired. Desire is the first thought energy toward building; an architect, whose business it is to think ideal structures, is employed; he demonstrates his ideas in form of plans drawn out, naming the materials to be used, etc."

IDEALS MENTAL FOOD

"The beautiful ideals of singing should be the expressions of the workmen who think the thoughts of the almighty Architect after him, and appropriate the same to the building up of character and body."

SONG INTERPRETATION

"When you get to song you will have to consider the mental concept of it as a whole, not what it is about—the song might describe the sighing of the wind among the trees—but these words would be used only to convey an idea; that idea is the goal of your thoughts, your mental concept, interpretation."

SUMMED UP

"Summed up, what can be realized by our beloved art? Voice culture, the building of a perfect character, the attainment of longevity and bliss. Is it worth while? Is it?"
